Environmental Quality Advisory Council Public Hearing

The Fairfax County Environmental Quality Advisory Council (EQAC) will be holding its annual public hearing on December 11th, 2002 at 7:30 P.M. in conference rooms 2 and 3 at the Government Center. EQAC is an advisory group that has been appointed by the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors to advise the Board on environmental matters. The Council is comprised of one citizen representative from each Magisterial District, four at-large members, and one student representative. The Sully representative is Don Ehreth, from the Franklin Farm community. Each year, EQAC holds a public hearing to obtain citizen input on issues of environmental concern. EQAC encourages all interested citizens to attend the public hearing in order to share their views regarding environmental issues of concern, and to identify any environmental issues applicable to Fairfax County. Environmental issues considered by EQAC include water quality, air quality, noise, hazardous materials, solid waste, stream valley protection, wildlife management, light pollution, visual pollution, and the use and preservation of ecological resources. The be placed on the speakers list or for additional information, call the Fairfax County Department of Planning and Zoning at 703 324-1210, or send an email message to EQAC@fairfaxcounty.gov.

Thanksgiving Wishes from Supervisor Frey

I would like to wish everyone a happy and safe Thanksgiving holiday. Enjoy spending time with your loved ones, and relax away from the everyday stresses of work and school. Root for your favorite football team (Go Redskins!) and savor the food and fellowship of our American holiday!

“Would you like Freys with that?”

A New Career?

Over the years, many have suggested that perhaps I shouldn't be in politics. Last Wednesday, I had the opportunity to try out a new career path at the Centreville McDonald's. McDonald's hosted a World Children's Day celebration to benefit the Ronald McDonald House Charities. They invited local celebrity guest crew members—including Congressman Tom Davis, the Redskinettes, Olympians, and myself. Everyone had a wonderful time, and I may have found a second calling as a drive-through window clerk!
